

OUR GRIFFIN HERITAGE

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM² EARWOOD (*THOMAS*¹) was born Bet. 1710 - 1730 in England, and died in TN. He married ELIZABETH REDMAN, daughter of JOHN REDMAN and REBECCA. She was born 1734 in Westmoreland Co., VA, and died July 29, 1822 in Rutherford Co., TN.

Notes for WILLIAM EARWOOD:

"There are families some members of which from generation to generation are leading and distinguished men renowned alike in war and peace; who tower above the great majority of their fellow citizens through long periods. Such were the Lees of Virginia, the Harrisons of Virginia, Illinois, and Indiana, and the Adams of Massachusetts. There are certain individuals of families that stand alone or who are distinguished far above any of the name, whose parentage gave no promise of renown and whose name is a measure died with them. Of such were Abraham Lincoln and Patrick Henry.

There are others called in England the great middle class. They are well educated, industrious, thrifty, and hospitable. They are law abiding citizens, well enough to do to practise the amenities and courtesies of civilized life, brave and patriotic enough to answer to the call of their country when menaced by foes foreign or domestic. These have been the backbone and bulwarks of our states and nation. They may not furnish presidents and governors in times of peace, nor generals in war times, but in war they are the men behind the guns and in peace stand for law and order, morality and education. Such a family have been the Yearwoods. Some of them came here in colonial times. It is but natural that long residence and ancestral traditions should intensify a love for home and country. The native, other things being equal, is more patriotic and has a greater desire for the prosperity of his state than a late arrival from the fatherland whether it is Italy, Germany, or Russia. Being educated here he better understands the genius of government. The colonists mostly came from England, they of course spoke the English language and their customs and laws were taken therefrom. Therefore an English immigrant actuated by a love of freedom was almost one of us before he arrived here. For these reasons we feel it not inapt to speak of the ancestors of the Yearwoods that came to Sweetwater Valley.

William Yearwood, whom we call the first, that is the first who settled in this country of the Yearwood family, came from England. The approximate date even is not known but likely somewhere from 1730 to 1740 and made his home in Charleston, SC. He there reared a family. He lived to be 90 years of age. This was remarkable as at that time Charleston and the country round were very much subject to yellow and miasmatic fevers which often proved fatal.

He was an extremely expert fencing master and taught the youth of his city that art. To know how to use the sword was part of a liberal education. It was a day when an insult was wiped out with blood on the field of honor. To fight a duel was not contrary to law and many a one was fought with swords as weapons.

When the Revolutionary War began, William Yearwood, the I, was likely of too advanced an age to stand hardships of a campaign, or from his profession he would have become a soldier. No mention is made of his enlisting.

However his son, William Yearwood, whom for convenience we will call the II, was a member of Captain William Alexander's company and served under General William Sumpter during the Revolutionary War. He was wounded in the arm at the Battle of Ramsours Mill Pond and Mrs. Ramsour cut the bullet out with her husband's razor. He was the ancestor of William Yearwood who lived in Sweetwater Valley." Mount Hermon Baptist Church

"Although Mount Hermon Baptist Church was not established at Dilton until 1879 when a building was erected on the church's present building site, it had its beginnings on Cripple Creek about four miles east of Dilton. In a land survey book of Rutherford County, 1822 - 1936, the surveyor records having surveyed four acres of land including the Cave Spring Meeting House on Cripple Creek for John Earwood (sic) and Jonathan Hall, trustees for the Baptist denomination of Christians on Nov. 5, 1825. On Nov. 2, 1856 its members adopted the Articles of Faith and Church Covenant; its members being Jacob and Isack Yearwood, John Stroope, John Yearwood, John Prater, Jane and Mary Beasley, Sally Cotton, Samuel and Eliza Cox, Samuel Mitchell, William and Cinthia Zumbro, John McFadden, and Emily Warren." NATIONAL ARCHIVES, PENSION REQUEST RECORDS OF JOHN YEARWOOD- R11933 (copy)

"State of Tennessee, Rutherford County..On this twenty seventh day of November in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty, personally appeared in open court before the Circuit Court of said Rutherford County now sitting, John Yearwood, a resident of the County of Rutherford and State of Tennessee, aged seventy eight, who being first duly sworn, according to Law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed since y. 1832; that he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers, and served as services state. He entered the service in the month of February seventeen hundred and eighty one. He does not remember the day of the month. His officers were as follows: Ensign Sutler (who was killed at Eutau Springs,) Lieutenant Parks and Finesse Reynolds, Major Martin, Colonel Lewis (who died some twenty years since near Nashville) and (Ser? or Geo?) Greene. He was never with the main army,,(?) though he was frequently in scouting companies against the Tories. He resided in Rowan County, North Carolina at the time he entered the service. He entered the service voluntarily, but does not know whether he was in the Continental Service or not. He was not drafted, but entered for the war. He received no bounty, but at the end of his services he received two papers from Capt. Reynolds - of which he was told (not being able to read) was a discharge- (which he lost shortly after he received it) and the other a certificate for (?passes?pamt?). The latter he sold to Col. William Polk for a wool hat. When he left Rowan under Capt. Reynolds, he marched to Swilford court house - the whole of Reynolds company and himself among the number, were..the baggage during the battle "stiking quarter". After this battle he marched across Peoce river to the Eutaw Springs, and was in that battle. He there received a wound from a bull just about the right knee - but having on leather breeches, and the fence of the bull being weak he recovered entirely from the wound, though the scar is still to be seen. After the battle he with others pursued the British a few miles, and then returned and buried the dead. Captain Rennels was wounded in a severe manner - The morning after the battle the wounded soldiers of the British, stated that they (the enemy) had received news of the surrender of Coornwallis and that this was the reason of their retreat towards Charleston. Two or three days after Capt. Reynold's (or Prusuels?) company of which this declaimant was a private, was discharged, at about twelve or fifteen miles from the battleground. He does not remember the day on which he was discharged - but it was two or three days after the above named battle. He was in service eight months and some days - he did not reach home til November - Being young when in service knew but few of the regular officers, or even their names, further than he has stated. He has no documentary evidence from which he can prove his services. The testimony of the only living witness by whom he can prove his services (Mary Ann Sailors) is hereto....- He was born in Halifax County, N. Carolina on the 6 June seventeed hundred and sixty-two. He has a very old record of his age in his bible. He lived in North Carolina til 1805 when he moved to Rutherford County, Tennessee, where he still resides. He names to the Court the following person who can certify to his veracity, to wit: Rev. Robt. L. Fajan, Hugh Kirk, Wm. Gilliason, Wm. B. Lillons. This depos... would have applied before this for a pension, but being in tolerable circumstances, he did not feel that need of it that he now does - nor did he know until he found Mrs. Salors that he could prove any thin g of his services. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to be pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any State or Territory.

The Yearwood family can be traced back to Roger Yearwood of Ollerton Parish of Nottinghamshire, England, born October 27, 1594. According to the early land records of Virginia; William Yearwood and Francis Whitten patented lands in the colony as early as July 29, 1650, on the North side of the Rappahannock river in what is now either Northumberland or Lancaster County.

A William Yearwood several generations down the line had a son named Elijah, born in 1807. Elijah married Prudence Walker Morrow, daughter of Armstrong Morow of Monroe County, Tennessee and of Four Mile Branch. After marrying a second time, William Yearwood settled in Buncombe County, North Carolina, and later moved to Dutch Bottoms in Cocke County, Tennessee. He later moved to Rutherford County, Tennessee, and then back to East Tennessee in 1824, locating in Sweetwater Valley.

William Yearwood's second wife was Martha Dickson, a widow of a Mr. Neely. They had the following children: Thomas Yearwood (b. 1810 in N.C.) married Lavinia Walker Scruggs, daughter of Rev. John Scruggs; Nancy Neely Yearwood (b. 1814); William Yearwood (b. 1816, TN); Horace Burton Yearwood (b. 1820, married Elizabeth

Notes for RAYMOND LEE TAYLOR:
R. L. (Raymond Lee) Taylor
The body of R. L. Taylor, 41, was found a little after 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in a small briar patch near his home on the Cherryville Road.

Earlier in the morning he had borrowed a gun from a negro, telling him he wanted to go hunting. The gun was found under his body, the bullet having pierced the heart. Nearby a small forked twig was found, probably used by Mr. Taylor in discharging the gun. His shirt and jacket had been pulled away and the gun held next to the skin. The negro reported hearing a shot about 9 o'clock in the morning, and when Mr. Taylor did not return for lunch, a search was started, with his son finding his body.

Mr. Taylor had been suffering ill health for several years. H had been in charge of the John Dering Implement and Tractor business next to Whitson's Garage.

Surviving are his wife, Lela Sullivan Taylor, and two sons, Joseph and Algie.

Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ in Bells, Wednesday afternoon, interment following in Bellview Cemetery.

Goosman Undertakers in charge.

THE CROCKETT COUNTY SENTINEL, Consolidated With The Alamo Pilot, Bells, Tenn., Thursday, May 4, 1939, Vol, No. 67, No 1.
