

Aurie (Ira) Jackson Page

Excepting the removal information from Minnie Trapp cemetery I could find no information about this person. The best and most reliable source states that both Aurie Page and Mackgarland Page were the children of Arwine E Page (1837-1907) and Amanda A Trapp (1837-1904), both of Dekalb County, Tennessee.

His relocation data gives his name as "Ira" but no Ira could be found. He was buried beside his sister Mackgarland Page. Both were disinterred and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. Their brother, Arwine Peyton Page was present at their disinterment.
