

Infant Cantrell

This infant is probably the child of Duke McDonald Cantrell (1868-1927) and Nancy Evelyn Luna (1883-1974).

Another Cantrell infant lies beside it, indicating the possibility they were twins. Also, a little girl, Candis Cantrell (1903-1903), is buried nearby and is also a daughter of Duke and Nancy Cantrell.

They were interred at D T Puckett cemetery and later disinterred and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. Noone was listed as being present at their disinterment.
