

Infant son of John & Bettie (Steele) (Dyer) Smith

This little boy was the son of John Henry Dyer (1856-1889) of Dekalb County, Tennessee and Elizabeth “Bettie” Steele (about 1850-1898) of White County, Tennessee. No birth or death dates were found.

John and Bettie Dyer's household for their first marriage year was shared by one of John's sisters, Emaline Dyer. John and Bettie married January 1, 1879 in Dekalb County. A son was born to them on August 22, 1880, William Fuson Dyer (1880-1951) who married Daisy Dyer (1887-1977).

When John died in 1889 Bettie married Moses Sylvester Smith (1857-1938) in Dekalb County, Tennessee on March 12, 1891.

John Dyer was disinterred from an unknown location and was relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. Bettie (Steele) (Dyer) Smith was interred at Toy Herrin cemetery and later was disinterred and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery.
