

Jennie Wilkerson

The problem with Jennie Wilkerson is that there were at least three of them in the mid-state area at about the same time. So take this information with a grain of salt and attempt to determine the one buried in the T J and W F Moss Cemetery and was relocated to Mt Holly Cemetery.

Jennie Wilkerson was born in 1897-1899. She was a daughter of Marion Francis Wilkerson (1863-1938) and Sarah Malinda Parkinson (1866-1943). Her father Francis "Frank" was born in Dekalb County and Sarah was born in Putnam County. Sarah Parkinson was a daughter of O Denton Parkinson and Rhoda Patton.

Her grandfather of the same name, Francis Marion Wilkerson I (1825-1863) was killed in the Civil War in the Battle of Chicamauga on September 19, 1863.

There is a marriage record for Miss Jennie Wilkerson and Homer Scott in Putnam County which says they were married January 30, 1922.
