

McForest Page

This individual was removed from Minnie Trapp cemetery with no death or birth date or any indication of whom his parents might have been. Some researches believe the name to be Mackgarland Page, but there seems to be no documentation to prove this. They list Mackgarland Page to be a son (or daughter) of Arwine E Page (1837-1907) and Amanda Trapp (1837-1904), or a son of Arwine E Page and another wife, Mary Polly Taylor (1846-1908).

Those researchers may be correct in their belief since A P (Arwine Peyton) Page is listed as being present at the disinterment. Arwine Peyton Page (1873-1951) was also a son of Arwine E Page and Amanda Trapp.

From Minnie Trapp cemetery this person was disinterred and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. Arwine Peyton Page was present at the disinterment.
