

Nancy A Cooper

Nancy A Cooper was born November 29, [1866?] or 1868 and died August 21, 1898. She was the first daughter of William Benjamin Cooper (1842-1924) and Mischal E (Smith) Cooper (1845-1905). We cannot trust what we think we see on her tombstone. The stone appears for some, as blurred as it is, to say the birth date was 1866. The 1870 and 1880 censuses agree that she was born in 1868, being age 1 and age 12 respectively, and so she was.

Her siblings were Betty (1875), Peter (1878), Mary E (1879), Maury J (1881), Esmiece (1884).

She was interred at Mildred Corley cemetery with her sister Mary, and her mother Mischal. She was later disinterred and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. Noone was listed as being present at the disinterment.
