

Sarah Elizabeth Robinson

There are two tombstones at Mt Holly Cemetery with almost the same information, the only difference being one digit in the birth date. This stone looks like the birth date is 1812 and the other is definitely 1872. Both have the same death date.

Sarah Albertson was born in Tennessee “about 1815” and married Ransom Robinson of North Carolina (“about 1809”-1883). One of their sons was Isaac Montgomery Robinson (1849-1927) of Smith County, Tennessee. Isaac married Martha E Brinley (1854-1918).

Isaac and Martha had a daughter Sarah Robinson born in August 1873. She may possibly be the Sarah Elizabeth Robinson on the next page.

“Farewell sweet Sarah, thou shall ever be a star, to guide us up to heaven, and to thee.”
