

Unusual

A mysterious marker which is very worn. Two circles, the lower divided into six slices of pie and the upper one more elaborate probably meant something to someone.

The only lettering on the stone is 4 letters which seem to be "FEET" or "FELT" or the first letter could be a "P". There are no dates. There were persons of the surname "Felt" in DeKalb Co., TN.

On the next page is an enlarged and enhanced image of just the lettering:
